Gov. Boies of Iowa is a calamity shouter from 'way back.

According to the Topeka Capital, not one of the so-called People's party leaders carried his own county at the late election.

It seems that the ship Kirkcubrightshire is still in a quandary about landing her cargo at Redondo. She is afraid that her name is longer than the wharf.

A Democratic paper of Kansas says there are only 25,000 Democratic voters left in that State. There were 110,000 who voted for Cleveland in 1888.

A very elaborate and painstaking political prophecy and criticism by a Republican correspondent is printed this morning elsewhere. He insists that we've got 'em.

JOHN FLAVEN MINES, the author of an extravagant article in the North American Review on Dr. Keeley's chloride of gold treatment for drunkenness, died recently in a drunken fit.

THIRTY-SIX THOUSAND coal miners in the department of the Pas de Calais, France, are reported on a strike. Such a demonstration as that in France is liable to cause serious trouble.

HENRY THOMPSON of Pasadena, whose wife is a daughter of old John Brown of Ossawatimie, writes to THE TIMES to deny that the founder of the John Brown colony is a son of the old original. This correction has already been made in these columns.

The average rate of duty on the total value of all importations for the last year under the old tariff was 29.22 per cent. For the first year under the new tariff it was 23.82 per cent., a reduction of 5.40 per cent. Isn't that tariff reform enough for the Democrats?

It is reported from London that the tin-plate industry in South Wales is in an exceedingly depressed condition, and that since last Monday several establishments have been shut down, throwing a large number of men out of employment. It is of course a regrettable state of affairs so far as Wales is concerned, but the Democrats of this country are not responsible for it.

"The longer the Alliance remains in session (at Indianapolis) the farther apart grow the various factions. * * A split in the Alliance on the sub-treasury and land-loan principles seems inevitable," says the telegraph. The inevitable has come sooner than most people expected it. Meantime McKinley is steadily forging to the front, and England continues to dislike the tariff.

A WATERWAYS convention is to be held in Kansas City shortly to discuss methods for the improvement of Western rivers and to work up a sentiment in favor of liberal appropriations by Congress. On this Coast our waterway, the Pacific Ocean, does not need much improvement, but we ought to try hard to get it out of the baneful grasp of the railroad monopoly and a subsidized steamship line.

RECIPROCITY, which the Democrats are violently characterizing as a "humbug," has increased our exports of cars and carriages to Brazil from a value of $263,000 for the five months ending September 1, 1890, to a value of $394,000 for the five months ending September 1, 1891. English manufacturers do not agree with their "allies" and "strong-siding champions" that reciprocity is a "humbug." On the contrary, they are fomenting a revolution in Brazil in a desperate endeavor to check the formidable growth of Yankee commerce.

A FAKIR who recently visited Hanford, Tulare county, sold some supposedly medical preparations, and between them worked off what he facetiously termed "pie." He said he placed 20 greenbacks inside of boxes containing gold watches, and although he informed the crowd that he proposed to do them up and would pay $14 a piece for any of the watches that would run a minute, he sold a lot of his boxes of "pie" for 50 apiece, taking in some $200. Upon opening the box the pie-eater found an advertisement printed to represent a greenback and a toy watch which would retail at 10 cents. Why can't such rascals be arrested and dealt with as they deserve?

F. TILMAN, secretary of the Alliance Executive Committee, who spoke at the opening of the supreme council of the Farmers' Alliance at Indianapolis last Tuesday, is credited with these words:

We are not here as politicians, seeking to disrupt partisan political parties, or to promote the fortunes of any political aspirant; nor are we here in the interest of any third party, for by our very organic teachings we have a right to vote with whatever political party we may think will best advance good government.

President Polk and other speakers had something to say in the same vein. If this is an honest declaration of the Alliance plan, it means that the organizers are longer headed than they were at first supposed to be. If they rush into the formation of a third party they are sure to come to grief; if they simply stand back and demand what is reasonable from the old parties they will get it in short order, for there is a probability that they may wield the balance of power.

Two Choice Premiums.

The Encyclopedia and Gazetteer, all in one volume of 720 pages, offered as a premium with THE TIMES, daily, or with the SATURDAY TIMES AND WEEKLY MIRROR, is almost valuable acquisition for any library. The publishers, Rand, McNally & Co. of Chicago, say of it:

Never before has there been offered to the public a book of reference approaching this in completeness, compactness, or cheapness. It contains 720 pages of encyclopedic information concerning all branches of knowledge, comprising in a condensed form, stripped of unnecessary verbiage, the very cream of the Encyclopedia Britannica, and the latest edition of Chambers's Encyclopedia, with the addition of a great many American subjects found in neither of the larger encyclopedias.

Besides being a comprehensive gazetteer of universal knowledge, it is also a complete atlas of the world. It has eighty full-page colored maps and nearly 2000 engravings. It treats of 18,000 subjects.

The publishers' retail prices for the Encyclopedia are $8 and $10 respectively, but the book will be sent by us, together with one year's subscription to the SATURDAY TIMES AND WEEKLY MIRROR, for the unprecedented low price of $3.80; or it will be furnished with the DAILY TIMES, three months, delivered by carrier in any part of the city, for $4.80.

The Premium Dictionary is furnished with the DAILY TIMES three months for $3.80; one year for $10.20; or with the SATURDAY TIMES AND WEEKLY MIRROR one year for $2.70.

A Lottery Campaign.

The most interesting political contest on the boards nowadays is that in Louisiana. It all turns on the question of lottery. The pro-lottery faction has carried the primaries in New Orleans. The Democratic machine in that city is corrupt, the State committee has sold out, the number of purchasable voters is large, and the lottery candidate for Governor, S. D. McHenry, is popular with the worst elements. The country districts will probably choose a majority of delegates opposed to McHenry; but whether their voice will be sufficient to overcome the solid block of city delegates is doubtful. If McHenry is nominated by the regular Democratic convention, an anti-lottery bolt will place an opposing candidate in the field. If, on the contrary, the anti-lottery men win the convention, McHenry will bolt. In either event his campaign expenses will be paid by the lottery company.

The lottery is reaching out with the true instincts of a political ring to obtain control of the entire State government. Last year it bought the Legislature. This year it bought the Supreme Court. McHenry giving the casting vote in its favor. More recently it bought the Democratic State Committee. It could not buy the present Governor, so it proposes to buy the next one in advance. An exchange, commenting on this complexion of affairs, very correctly observes that "the dictatorship of a Balmaceda, a Fonseca, the rule of a Czar, the conquest by a foreign people, could not be as destructive of American institutions as the ownership and government of a State by a horde of gamblers."

An interesting article from the Jacksonville (Fla.) Times-Union, detailing the system of auction sales by which a home market has been established for the orange-growers of that State, is published in THE TIMES today. Last season more fruit was sold at the home auctions than during the preceding three years. "This year the demand warranted calling for 20,000 boxes for the first sale, which was held on the 18th inst. As an additional safeguard and protection to growers, the 'home market' managers have established agencies in Eastern markets and in Europe. If all of the fruit offered does not sell at the auctions it will be shipped. This is the plan which the Fruit-Growers' Union of Southern California is endeavoring to introduce here.

A curious story comes from Honolulu of a British yacht—supposed to be "long, low and rakish"—which arrived there some time ago in charge of her owners, Messrs. Bloom and Douglas. These gentlemen while in port spent English sovereigns lavishly, and very shortly, an Australian steamer came along and reported that the Westminster Bank of Sydney had been robbed of 50,000 sovereigns. After some detention under suspicion, the object of which was to allow the inevitable detective to get in his work, the piratical craft was released and she is believed to be on her way to San Francisco. The English sovereigns will be received at a "present arms" if they land at that port.

SAMUEL J. TILDEN had a great reputation as a reformer during his lifetime, and there is reason to believe that his soul still goes marching on. The recent annulment of his will by a New York Court has set people all over the country to thinking and talking of reforms in probate matters. If the most astute lawyer of his day, applying himself to his task while in perfect health and with the most careful deliberation, could not draw a will that would stand the fire of the law there is not much use for anybody else to try, they say. The New York Press brings forward the suggestion that the laws be so amended as to allow a man to probate his will before he dies. Then all of the interested and neglected heirs would have every chance to prove whether he is really of sound and disposing mind or not and whether he is subjected to undue influences. The probabilities are that there would be fewer of such charges trumped up if they had to face the living testator.

The Oakland Times thinks that, when it comes to a cabinet position, California is not in it. Whenever the Washington correspondents have nothing particularly to write about, they send out a story to the effect that California is to have the War Secretaryship. There is no more in the report now, our contemporary thinks, than there was in the first instance—and that was no more than was in the hopes of certain of the very few Harrison men in California.

CLARENCE KING says that Carmencita has really done no dancing in America. "When I was in Spain some years ago," he writes, "I saw her dance on a table in a café. Well, that was dancing! If Carmencita were to give us Americans one of her Spanish dances as it is tolerated—nay, applauded—in Spain, she would be sent to jail, and never would get out. The Spanish are a singularly Arcadian people—with them everything goes."

Gov. BUCHANAN of Tennessee is beginning to realize that he has not force enough to cope with the angry miners, and is reported as purposing to call on the General Government for assistance. It is a disgraceful position in which the State of Tennessee finds herself by reason of the incompetence of her Governor and Legislature.

A DOCTOR at Cumberland, Md., sewed up a railroad man's wound and then, because the unfortunate cripple had not $2 to pay his fee, cut the stitches and unaid his work. That doctor is too mean to live.

SPEAKING of the recent seditions uttered of the Anarchists, the Chicago Inter Ocean observes: "This kind of talk should not be tolerated. It is not freedom of debate; it is freedom of advice to commit murder."

AMUSEMENTS.

THE THEATERS.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE.—The first appearance at this house last night of the Columbia Opera Company in Verdi's Il Trovatore made a very favorable impression upon the good-sized audience that was gathered to listen to the familiar strains of the noted Italian composer.

The cast was as follows:
Leonora.....Mlle. Nina Berthel
Manrico.....William Foran
Azucena.....Mme. Garso-Dely
Conde.....M. Sigurd
Ferrando.....Josef Rubo
Rui.....Theo I. eben
Alida.....Aldis
Old Gypsy.....Charles A. Deane
Without going into an elaborate detail upon the merits of each individual performer it may be said that the soprano and contralto are both exceptionally good. The baritone, who sings in French, has also an excellent voice and method, while the tenor gave ample satisfaction. He is not a great tenor, but with the exception that his ambition to deliver the high chest C was not duly rewarded, his singing of the role was a good deal above the average. Had he possessed some dramatic ability it would have been of great assistance to him in the rendering of his part.

Josef Rubo made the part of "Ferrando" quite prominent and received a good deal of applause. In fact, the audience was in several places worked up to a very pronounced sympathetic demonstration of its pleasure. The "Anvil Chorus" was well sung, and so was all the rest of the chorus work with the exception of the Miserere. The orchestra deserves praise for its faithful assistance. So, too, was made at any elaboration in the mounting of the opera, but the costumes were all handsome, and when it is considered that grand opera being presented at "poppy" prices, the production was indeed a hard to please who could go away and not say that he had received the full worth of his money.

This evening the company will produce the celebrated new work of Mascagni, entitled Cavalleria Rusticana.

Miners' Troubles in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 18.—A special from Terre Haute, Ind., to the Sentinel says that the situation at the Alum Cave coal mines, where the riot occurred yesterday, when one Pole, a non-union miner, was shot, was feverish today, but latest telegrams contained no reference to further trouble. Poles were not put to work this morning and were not molested, although the feeling is intense against them. The Poles are much wrought up over the shooting of their countryman, and every man of them is armed. Serious trouble is feared.

Board of Trade Men Fleece.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—A dozen or more Board of Trade firms assert that they have been fleeced out of sums ranging from $500 to $1250 each by Sidney L. Withers, who until a few days ago was postmaster at Woodbine, Iowa, but now is said to be fleeing from detectives. The fraud, according to the story circulated on the board, was accomplished by means of forged bills of lading which were used to secure the discovery by the general claim agent of Northwestern road. It is thought the total of his stealings will exceed $80,000.

Escaped Prisoner Recaptured.

STOCKTON, Nov. 18.—Sheriff Kay of Tulare county arrived here today with William H. Smith, who broke jail at the same time Gratton Dalton and John Beck escaped from Visalia. Sheriff Kay got on Smith's trail a week ago, followed him in disguise and last night arrested him. He says he has no knowledge of where the other jail-breakers went. Kay left with his prisoner tonight.

The Traffic Association.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—The Executive Committee of the Traffic Association today, after a long discussion, unanimously elected J. S. Leeds traffic manager. He is expected to arrive here before the end of the present month. A sufficient amount of money has been subscribed to pay the expenses of the association for two years at least, and it is believed it can be made permanent.

Ocean Steamer Arrivals.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Arrived: City of New York.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The City of Paris from New York passed Holyhead this morning. The condition of the weather prevented the City of Paris touching at Queenstown, so she proceeded direct to Liverpool.

Depositors in a Broken Bank.

ANHEIM, Nov. 18.—J. W. J. Culton of this place had $60,000 in the suspended California National Bank, San Diego. E. P. Fowler of this place had $5000 there.

TO THE LAST DITCH.

Brazilian Rebels will Make Desperate Resistance.

Fortifying Their Seaports Against the Dictator's Warships.

The Junta Well-Supplied with Munitions and Money.

Refugees from Rio de Janeiro Say That Da Fonseca Cannot Hold His Authority in the Capital Much Longer.

By Telegram to The Times.

RIO JANEIRO, Nov. 18.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] From dispatches received today it is learned that the insurgents are fortifying the city of Rio Grande and making preparations for repelling any advances made on the place by the forces of Da Fonseca. The government has ordered troops to proceed to the city of Desterro, the capital of the province of Santa Catharina, forty miles southwest of Rio Janeiro. It contains the palace of the President of the province and an arsenal and is defended by several forts.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The most important news received here today relates to affairs in the state of Rio Grande do Sul. This is given in a dispatch to the Times from Santiago de Chile.

According to this, the differences which have been interfering with perfect unity of action by the provisional Junta, now in authority in that state, are disappearing and members of the Junta are now acting in harmony. They have made one of their number, Dr. Assis Brazil, Minister of War. Active measures are to be taken to improve the defenses and increase the effective strength of the army. The mouth of the Rio Grande, the principal river in the state, has been obstructed by sinking two ships in the channel and the river is protected by heavy artillery.

The Junta is in full control of the military stores in the state and of the government factory for making munitions of war. Provincial banks and private persons are offering to furnish the Junta with ample funds to carry forward the plans that may be decided on for maintaining the independence of the state. The officers sent by the dictator to take the places of those who cast their fortunes with the insurgents in Rio Grande do Sul arrived at Montevideo and propose to proceed at once to their destination. They assert that several men-of-war are now on the way to Rio Grande and others are being made ready to follow.

Refugees from Rio de Janeiro who reached Montevideo express the opinion that Da Fonseca will not be able to long maintain himself. His cause is lost, they say. Only fear of mob violence, in their opinion, now restrains the discontented opposition at the Brazilian capital from active steps against Da Fonseca.

BEFORE THE REVOLT.

Students' Riots in Rio Previous to the Final Outbreak.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The steamship Earndale from Rio Janeiro arrived at Brooklyn yesterday morning. The ship left before serious trouble began in Brazil, but the officers bring some interesting news. The Earndale sailed from Rio on the morning of October 24, having been in port about two weeks. During that time there were no United States war vessels in the harbor, but there were two British and one French cruiser. Of all the Brazilian men-of-war in the Rio navy-yard only two appeared to be in commission, so the reports which have reached here of activity in the Brazilian navy are very generally exaggerated.

"The only trouble I know of," said one of the Earndale's officers, "occurred on the night of October 8. A great crowd of medical students gathered in one of the theaters where a rather popular actress was the cause of a good deal of cheering and shouting. The police objected to the disorder, and tried to put a stop to it. The result was a rush of students against the police, who drew their swords and pistols and fought the crowd. Several students were killed and a number of the combatants on both sides were badly injured. On the following night the police and students again met in a row, resulting in the death of two of the latter and a number of minor casualties. A young Englishman who happened to be passing down the street where the fight occurred was killed instantly by a stray bullet.

"As a result of this riot mounted police patrolled the streets of the capital and day and night kept the city unsafe to go into the streets. The garrison was not called on for assistance, probably because the army would have sided with the civilians. The soldiers hate the police. The latter are made up of the worst classes. They are mostly negroes."

"Was there any political significance in this student riot?" was asked. "I think the republican form of government has not passed out as they expected. There is a powerful faction desiring the reinstatement of the empire. They want to put Dom Pedro or his nephew on the throne. Since the fall of the empire prices of every commodity have doubled. The government has imposed a high tariff."

The officer said further that it was the general opinion in Rio that the government would not last many months longer. He was not surprised when he read of the revolutionary movement.

More Accessions to the Rebels.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Herald's Buenos Ayres cable asserts that more towns in Rio Grande do Sul have joined the revolutionists. The enlistment of soldiers is actively going on. Five yessels of the government fleet are reported to have gone over to the Junta. The latter has adopted for its flag a white and red globe. Other States of Brazil are also reported to be in sympathy with the revolutionists. The government has imposed a high tariff."

San Luis, the capital of the Argentine province of the same name is reported in a ferment. Soldiers patrol the streets and the Governor's house is converted into military headquarters. The Uruguay gunboat Artigas has gone up the river to guard the interests of Uruguay's territory.

'Frisco Convention Rates.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—The Southern Pacific Company has received assurances from the Northwestern Railroad that it will participate in the $50 rate for either or both of the National political conventions if they should be held in San Francisco. As the Union Pacific has made the same promise, there is at least one line open for delegates and apparently there is no need. President Crocker said that when the matter was left to the Transcontinental Association he felt sure it would be voted down.

THE ST. PAUL FIRE.

Additional Details.—The Losses Will Aggregate Nearly $1,000,000.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] St. Paul last night suffered one of the most disastrous fires in its history, the buildings damaged being those of Griggs, Cooper & Co., wholesale grocers, and Farwell, Ozmun, Kirk & Co., wholesale hardware. The total loss is from $900,000 to $1,000,000. The loss is covered by insurance. The buildings occupied by the two firms were brick and stone structures five stories high and had a frontage on Third street of 300 feet and on Broadway of 200 feet. Griggs, Cooper & Co. occupied two-thirds of the building.

The flames first made their appearance at 11:44 o'clock, on the fourth floor. In less than five minutes the fire department was on hand in force, but a general alarm had to be turned in soon afterward. The rapidity with which the flames spread, the blinding volumes of smoke which filled the streets surrounding, the cold weather and inability of the firemen to get at the fire, rendered their work very hard. In half an hour from the time the alarm was sent in flames leaped through the roof and communicated to the adjoining building, where they made rapid progress. The firemen turned their attention to saving the floors below and for a time succeeded in confining most of the damage to this floor, though the loss in this department alone will reach fully $800,000. The flames crept downward in the hardware building through the elevator shaft and one by one the other floors succumbed. The fire in Griggs, Cooper & Co.'s building at this time turned downward to the ground floor. The fire department fought valiantly against terrible odds, and at 3:30 the walls fell. The flames set fire to the frame building used by the Northern Pacific News Company. Soon the walls of the Farwell, Ozmun & Kirk building fell outward. Several attempts were made to save the stock in less exposed parts of the building, but without avail and complete destruction both of stock and buildings was inevitable.

The buildings belonged to D. C. Shepard and were estimated to be worth $200,000. The losses are estimated as follows: Farwell, Ozmun & Kirk, $400,000, with insurance of $850,000; Griggs, Cooper & Co., on building and stock, loss $550,000, fully insured; total loss, $950,000.

The flames were under control at 4:30 this morning, but were fast consuming what remained of the stock.

No definite information is obtainable as to the cause of the fire, but it is thought to have originated in some unknown manner in the packing room on the fourth floor. Both firms will continue business without interruption. Their books and accounts were saved.

THOSE RIGHTS OF WAY.

When They Are Secured Southern Pacific Will Fill Up Its Gap.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Vice-President C. F. Crocker of the Southern Pacific Company, speaking of the prospects of beginning work on the Coast division between Santa Margarita and Ellwood, said today that the right-of-way documents presented by the committee of San Luis Obispo county have been placed in the hands of the company's attorneys, and he was now awaiting the report of the committee of Santa Barbara citizens. These committees had thought, when they began a year and a half ago, after the manner of securing rights-of-way and depot privileges for the company, according to the agreement with Crocker and Huntington, that they would finish the work in thirty days, but they had been struggling with it ever since.

Crocker believed, however, that the committee would make a report. If, after this, it is found that the citizens have fulfilled their part of the agreement, the company will order construction to begin, not waiting for the issue of such suits for condemnation of lands as might still be pending.

CATTLE THIEVES.

Several Important Arrests Made by Detectives in Merced County.

MERCED, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] For upwards of fifteen years a number of cattlemen in this county have suffered extensive losses of cattle and hogs at the hands of thieves. This disappearance of cattle on ranges was a regular thing. Several wealthy cattlemen a few months ago employed the Lawson Agency to work up the case for them. Lawson sent two of his men, one of whom got work with Julian Lamerie, who has been arrested several times for complicity in cattle theft, but always managed to escape conviction. The result of their work was partially made known yesterday morning by the arrest of Lamerie on three charges of grand larceny in stealing hogs and cattle.

This afternoon Lawson drove into town with four of Lamerie's former employes under arrest. It is stated that the men have confessed. Lamerie will have an examination December 2. In the meantime he is out on bonds.

FROM CHILE.

The Electoral College Meets Today—The Baltimore Inquiry.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The Herald's Valparaiso dispatch says: "The Electoral College will hold a meeting at Santiago tomorrow and publicly choose Montt for President. A resolution will be introduced in the Chamber to award him 70,000 molas, to the newly appointed Rear Admiral 50,000, and to the several captains in the navy 40,000 each, in recognition of their sacrifices in the late struggle."

The cruiser Errazuriz sailed today from Uruguay for Valparaiso. "Capt. Schley of the Baltimore reported that the American seamen injured in the late fight are sufficiently recovered to be able to testify, and he asks that an interpreter chosen by himself be allowed by Judge Foster to be present in accordance with the instructions of the Secretary of the Navy."

A Remarkable Verdict.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—The inquest in the case of Laura A. Senger, the young woman who died from the effects of a criminal operation last week, resulted this afternoon in a verdict of "no evidence to convict anyone of crime." The verdict is very remarkable from the fact that the girl when dying wrote a statement positively incriminating Dr. Hall with having performed the operation from whose effects the jury finds her death resulted.

Unknown Castaways.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—A pilot boat's officers report that when the Jesse Carr was six miles southwest of the lightship early this morning cries were heard of men adrift in a boat. It was blowing, and owing to the darkness the castaways could not be discovered.

By Telegram to The Times.

GRAND RAPIDS (Mich.), Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—Don J. Leathers, president of the Grand Rapids Horseman's Association, tomorrow will offer $100,000 for a great week of races at the meeting of the Michigan horse breeders in Grand Rapids the last week in August, 1892. He offers a $50,000 purse for a race for the stallion championship of all ages, to be trotted by Palo Alto, Stamboul, Allerton, Nelson, Delmar and Pat Downing, the great stallions of the present year.

In addition Leathers offers $25,000 for a race for Arion (2:10½), Monbars (2:18), Ralph Wilkes (2:18) and Bermuda Boy, the four great two-year-olds of 1891. The races will be given on different days. Other races of the meeting will be contests for stakes and purses aggregating $25,000.

The Programme at Stockton.

STOCKTON, Nov. 18.—Marvin expects to return to Palo Alto tomorrow with the champion horse Palo Alto, the yearling Bell Bird and two-year-old colt Cecilian and go into winter quarters. He talked of remaining to drive the yearling again, but rain is falling tonight and when it clears off the track is to be harrowed for McKinney and others, so Marvin thinks it best to return home. The Sidney yearling filly, Fron-Frou, with a record of 2:27, will be kept here, as Sanders hopes to drive her to beat Bell Bird's 2:28½. Tonight it is shovery, and it is believed the weather will be right for trotting Saturday or Tuesday. If heavy rains come on the record meeting will be closed, but not as long as there is a prospect for fair days and a good track.

Railroad Headquarters Shifted.

FRESNO, Nov. 18.—Acting on telegraphic orders from San Francisco, the work of removing division headquarters from Tulare to this city began today. Carloads of furniture and office material were shipped from Tulare last night, and this evening twelve engines were side-tracked here instead of going forward to Tulare. It was expected that the transfer would not be made before the 1st of December, but for some unknown reason the Southern Pacific officials ordered an immediate change. The large round-house which is now building will not be completed for a couple of weeks at least MODESTO, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Today Rev. H. S. Gillingham, recently suspended from the ministry of the Presbyterian Church, swore to a complaint charging James Thompson, one of the church deacons, and a leading witness for the prosecution in the trial, with fraudulent voting at the irrigation district election in April, 1890.

The complaint alleges that Thompson knowingly voted while not a resident of the district. The warrant has not yet been served, as the constable was unable to find him. He is a prominent farmer living seven miles from Modesto, and is a man of means. Other suits are threatened as an outgrowth of the church trial.

BACK FROM THE ARCTIC.

A Whaler's Adventurous Cruise Lasting Over Two Years.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The whaling schooner Hicoline, Capt. Hereseden, arrived this morning after an absence of over two years in the Arctic Ocean. The schooner had several times been reported here as lost. Capt. Hereseden says that the crew passed the winter of 1889 at Elson Bay. The ice broke up July 23, 1890, and pressed the schooner out of the water and on to the beach, fortunately doing no damage. Whaling had previously been poor, as the weather was intensely cold and the ice did not move. Consequently very few whales were seen. August 10, 1890, after having been supplied with provisions and two white men and five natives to assist the crew, the schooner started eastward and reached Herschel Island August 27. Here several steamers and the schooner Silver Wave were found. The Hicoline proceeded as far as Key-point, and sighting whales returned to Herschel Island to winter.

THE VINTAGE.

The Season's Yield of Dry Wines Will be

[SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Secretary Scott, of the Viticultural Commission, is receiving reports from the various wine-producing districts of the State regarding this season's wine crop. In the southern part of the State very little dry wine will be produced this year, the production being limited mostly to sweet wines and brandy. The same is to be said of Fresno county and counties to the north. The dry wine yield of Napa, Sonoma, Solano and Santa Clara counties and the Livermore Valley will average one-third short, or about 7000 gallons less than the average yield. The sweet wine production is larger this season than last, and the same can be said of brandy.

Clarence Wetmore is in the southern part of the State for the purpose of investigating the Anaheim disease and damage done to last year's crop.

THE INSANITY PLEA

Evidently not Quite Played Out in the Sun-kissed Land.

PHOENIX (Ariz.), Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The insanity plea, interposed in behalf of Thomas Gallagher alias Moran, on trial for the murder of Constable Hawkins in Jerome, last April, succeeded better than the prisoner himself had hoped for, as the jury, after being out nearly four hours, came into court this morning and announced that they could not agree. Eight accepted the plea and evidence in behalf of insanity and stood for acquittal, while four were in favor of conviction. The most that was hoped to be gained was a verdict of manslaughter, as the killing was entirely unprovoked.

Stocking Streams With Brook Trout.

CARSON (Nev.), Nov. 18.—Fish Commissioner Mills has gathered 800,000 eastern brook trout spawn in Nevada streams for the purpose of restoring our waters and assisting the California Fish Commission. Half of the catch goes to California. Deputy Fish Commissioner Byron Close and E. W. Hunt of California have already made six trips and will make a few more to bring the catch up to a round million. When the eyes appear in the spawn transportation to California will take place. Commissioner Mills estimates the hatching of 98 per cent.

Threw Himself Before a Train.

REDWOOD CITY, Nov. 18.—A man about 35 years old threw himself in front of the Menlo accommodation this morning at Menlo, and was instantly killed. On his person was a letter to G. Carrington, Warwick street, London, England, and a receipt from the German Tailors' Union of the United States, and a Waltham stem-winder silver watch. The letter says:

"I am ill; get no sleep, and some one is altering my figures. Telegraph. Your son, GEORGE."

The Stamp-Aul Wedding.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 18.—At the residence of Warden Charles Aull, at the Folsom State prison, today, Irwin C. Stamp, State Prison Director and Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, and Miss Eva Aull, sister of Warden Aull, were united in marriage in the presence of a large circle of relatives and friends. Gov. Markham was among the number. The couple will spend their honeymoon in Los Angeles and the southern part of the State.

CHARGES OF FRAUD.

Sixteen Heirs of Charles Durkee Suing for His Estate.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Sixteen heirs of Charles Durkee, at one time Governor of Utah, began suit in the Federal Circuit Court today to recover over $500,000 of Durkee's estate, which, it is charged, they did not receive because of the fraudulent acts of Franklin & Head of this city and Harvey Durkee, half brother of the deceased. These two latter were executors of the estate, and it is alleged that through their manipulations the rightful heirs were cheated. Mr. Head is alleged to have managed the estate so as to get most of it in possession of himself and Harvey Durkee. The latter is now dead. The bill, which is a lengthy one, makes sensational charges. The complainants are George Durkee of DeForest, Wis.; Charles L. Boardman of Watertown, S. D., and fourteen others who are scattered all over the country. Head, who is a well-known capitalist and whose wife was a niece of ex-Gov. Durkee, said tonight that the estate amounted to only $40,000, instead of $500,000. It has been twice in the courts, both times going against plaintiffs. Head declares the proceedings blackmail.

THE CHURCHMEN.

"Socialism" the Topic at the Episcopal Congress.

A Variety of Views Expressed by Prominent Clergymen—Rev. Dr. Huntington of New York Opposed to Landlords.

By Telegram to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] Rev. Reese F. Alsop of Brooklyn opened the second day's proceedings of the Protestant Episcopal Church Congress with an address on "Socialism."

He pointed out the differences between the most noted advocates of socialist theories and urged adhesion to the present system of social economies, holding that if labor forced a change it might kill the goose and lose the golden eggs. He did not believe the present condition as bad as it was made out. Thrift and enterprise rarely failed to reap profits. It was not true that the rich were getting richer and the poor poorer. The laborer today enjoyed luxuries not dreamed of a hundred years ago. There were abuses under the present system of wealth distribution, such as vast monopolies and trusts, that led to illegitimate profits, but they were a disease to eradicate which the body need not be destroyed.

Prof. Gould of Philadelphia said that the serious evil of the socialist system was the destruction of individuality. The pulpit should condemn constantly the moral evil of the present system, and people should be taught to live in a state of freedom according to the Master's teachings.

Rev. William Prall of Detroit spoke of the prevailing discontent among the laboring classes, based on the belief that they failed to receive their share of the world's wealth. The differences between Christianity and socialism were found in the fallacious socialist belief that changing the condition of men changed their characters.

Rev. Dr. Kerkus of Baltimore said that a most radical and stupid interpretation had been given the scriptures. Religion was never less than common sense. What would become of the fine arts under socialism? What would become of the freedom of the press? Rev. Mr. Huntington of New York agreed with Dr. Kerkus, but from exactly opposite reasons. He was not a Socialist, but recognized that there is discontent among the people, an intellectual discontent moving toward socialism. The capitalist was a hard-working man; the landowner was not. Men did line without iron, gold and silver, but never could live without land. Was it not absurd to class land, the gift of God, as private property with things man made? He did not favor division of land into little bits, but he hated landlords. His title was blasphemous, for there was but one landlord, and the human race were tenants.

At the evening session the topic was "The Relations of the Clergy to Politics." Several addresses were made.

TO DRIVE OUT CHINESE.

Labor Organizations in Montana Will Boycott the Heavens.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The Pioneer Press special from Anaconda, Mont., says: "The labor organizations in Butte, Missoula, Great Falls and other cities of Montana have commenced a strong fight against the Chinese. All members of the various unions will not patronize Chinese and agree to boycott all merchants, saloon men, restaurant keepers, hotel men and others who employ Chinese in any way. Heads of families are requested not to employ Chinese as cooks or servants. The fight promises to be a hard one. There are over 4000 Chinese in Montana and 1602 in Butte alone."

Young Drexel Wedded.

VINCENNTOWN (N. J.), Nov. 18.—At 11 o'clock this morning Miss Maybrick and George Washington Charles Drexel, youngest son of A. J. Drexel, the banker, were married in Trinity Episcopal Church. Bishop Scarborough of New Jersey performed the ceremony, assisted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Smith. The church, which had been recently redecorated and beautified, was adorned with chrysanthemums and rare exotics. Owing to the illness of the bridegroom's mother, none but members of the family and most intimate friends were invited. The bride is a beautiful young woman, belonging to an old New Jersey family. The groom, whose age is 22, is a member of the Philadelphia Fourth-Hand Club.

Welsh Tin-plate Works Closed.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The tin plate industry in the south of Wales is in an exceedingly depressed condition. Since Monday last several works have shut down, throwing a large number of men out of employment. In many cases these men have nothing but their wages to depend upon and there is much suffering. They and their families are completely destitute.

MATLOCK & REED, Auctioneers.

J. T. SHEWARD, 113-115 North Spring St.

WE WANT a few more first-class salespeople; those who have had experience and are willing and anxious to show goods. The trade of this house is on a big boom. New goods are coming in and going out. A handsome line of new effects in plaids, and stripes in dress goods today at 10 cents; it is needless to say they are a very great bargain. It is to your advantage to see them at once. Elegant wool dress goods, 8 yards for $3; actual value, 65 cents per yard; figure the saving; they are rapid sellers and are very choice styles. The notion department is offering the largest doll at 50 cents; a smaller size for 25 cents. New drapery silks, 75 cents and $1 per yard; that is one of the effects of moderate profits. A choice line of stamped linens; the prices are lower than usual; they cost the same, but the new idea of marking all goods at moderate profits is the real reason. All Christmas goods are placed upon the same basis and this, you know, is something very unusual. The cloak department—there is where the big sales are made, and there is where the profits have taken a big tumble, and the same is the truth in the dress goods department. Moderate profits; a bisque doll for a quarter. Moderate profits; a leather writing desk for 50 cents. Moderate profits; all-silk faille at 75 cents; $1.25 is the usual price. A rapid turning-over of stocks at close figures; the very best service; the best possible treatment and a stock that has never been surpassed is doubling up the crowds and this means large sales. First-class salespeople with experience can find good positions.

A Yachting Party Scattering Gold at Honolulu Which is Said to Have Been Stolen from a Sydney Bank.

By Telegram to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The steamship Australia arrived this morning seven days from Honolulu. Advice received at the islands October 22, were to the effect that the situation in Samoa was strained and that at King Malletto's request the faipule had agreed to issue a proclamation declaring Mataafa a rebel. The president of the council in announcing the King's wish to the faipule is reported to have said: "It is now time for the government to be strong and seize Mataafa, and prosecute him."

Hawaiian planters held a convention at Honolulu, beginning October 26, and discussed a number of important topics, among them the foreign labor question, and the advisability of the extensive raising of coffee and tea on the island.

Ex-Archbishop Ashford published an article October 30 in which he charged the press of Honolulu with being afraid to frankly discuss the situation arising out of the changed conditions of reciprocity with the United States produced by the free sugar section of the McKinley Bill. The Honolulu Bulletin commenting on the letter says:

The United States does not want to disturb our autonomy. Those reported utterances of her public men in favor of a protectorate are based on the false light in which the Hawaiian situation is presented by such writings as appear in Ka Leo (newspaper) and to which Ashford's letter bears a somewhat close affinity. The reasons for Hawaiian independence are as strong today as they ever were.

One hundred Japanese on the Ewa plantation who celebrated their Emperor's birthday by going on a strike were arrested November 4 and sentenced to pay $3 and costs each for refusing to perform farm service.

The U.S.S. Pensacola is still at Honolulu. The U.S.S. Charleston had not arrived there when the Australia left the islands.

Consul McKinley's advice from Honolulu under date of November 11 are to the effect that rumors regarding the ill health of Queen Liliuokalani which have appeared in American and English newspapers are without any foundation whatsoever and receive no attention in Honolulu, where the facts are known.

The advice state that the Queen's health is excellent and that she devotes much attention to state duties. The Queen has commissioned Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, father of the Princess, to be Governor of Oahu.

While there is considerable political discussion growing out of preparations for the next legislative campaign in the islands the discussion is marked with calmness and there are no signs of the disturbing elements that have been reported from time to time.

A QUEER YACHTING PARTY.

Sailing About With a Lot of Gold Stolen From Honolulu.

HONOLULU (Hawaii), Nov. 11, via San Francisco, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] The British yacht Beagle arrived here about September 1, with her owners, Messrs. Bloom and Duglass, on board, who spent money lavishly while here. On the arrival of the steamship Australia from the colonies last month it was announced that the Westminster Bank of Sydney had been robbed of over 50,000 sovereigns, and photographs brought by detectives who came on the steamer tallied, it is claimed, with the appearance of the owners of the yacht. The latter were at once arrested on a charge of smuggling British coin, which did not appear on the vessel's manifest, and on which there is a duty of 100 dollars. Hawaiian laws: A detective then went to San Francisco to cable to Sydney for further instructions, as there is no treaty between Australia and Hawaii covering the case in points.

The trial of the men was continued until the return of the steamer from San Francisco, which it was supposed would bring the detective and additional evidence. As, however, the detective did not put in an appearance the yacht was searched, with the exception of the hold, and no sovereigns being found, the case was dismissed. It was noted, however, that all sums expended by the men were in British sovereigns, and that the captain and cook left the vessel on her arrival.

On being released a new crew was shipped and the yacht put to sea, her destination being Japan. The yacht is still hovering about the islands, it is estimated that she may head for San Francisco.

GARZA'S BAND.

Their Late Fight With Mexicans—Headed for New Laredo.

BROWNVILLE (Tex.), Nov. 18.—Mexican authorities say that they had a fight with Garza in which he was defeated, but they could capture neither him nor any of his men. On this side of the Rio Grande it is said the Mexican troops were defeated with three killed and a number wounded, who are now in the military hospital. Garza withdrew to the mountains in good order after the fight.

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.), Nov. 18.—Scouts from the United States cavalry forces reported this morning that they had located the Mexican revolutionist Garza in a ranch on the American side of the Rio Grande. Capt. Hardy's troops started out to capture him, but in a short time the report came from another source down the river that Garza is on the Mexican side with several hundred well-armed followers, and heading for New Laredo. Conflicting reports have caused much excitement tonight in that vicinity.

Victims of a Collision.

WILLIAMSPORT (Pa.), Nov. 18.—Two passenger trains on the Philadelphia and Erie collided at Bard's siding this afternoon. Engineer Ray of Harrisburg was fatally injured and Mrs. May Nugent, Miss Kate Rooney and Helen M. Rooney and Helen Murray, members of a dramatic company, were painfully hurt.

Demolished by a Gale.

BINGHAMTON, Nov. 18.—Lester's boot and shoe factory at Leicestershire was partly demolished by a high gale yesterday. A number of employes were painfully hurt, but fortunately no lives were lost. The pecuniary loss is heavy.

THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Last Day of the Great Gathering at Boston.

Reports from Various Departments of the Organization—Resolutions Adopted in Favor of Suffrage and Denouncing Forms of Vice.

By Telegram to The Times.

Boston, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.] This was the last day of the W.C.T.U. convention. The first report on the "Social Department" was given by Mrs. Anna M. Hammock of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Nicols reported progress from the State and county fair department. Mrs. R. A. Esmond made a report urging the use of unfermented wine upon all congregations for communion. She said the Bible wine was unfermented and modern church wine should be like it. In Pennsylvania fully one-third of the churches use fermented wine, but through the efforts of the W.C.T.U. the proportion is being gradually reduced.

Mrs. Theresa A. Jenkins reported for the legal department, making an earnest plea for the unrestricted enfranchisement of women. She said that every State had reported progress. To her free ballot for woman is only a question of time.

Mrs. Hannah J. Bailey spoke for the peace and international arbitration department, her remarks being full of the hopeful outlook for the future.

It was voted that a telegram be sent to the President and Government of the United States against any belligerent action on the part of the United States toward Chile.

In the afternoon the report of the Committee on Resolutions was considered. The resolutions, as adopted, pledge members to renewed efforts in the cause of total abstinence and prohibition; note the founding of a Father Matthew professorship in the Catholic University at Washington; approve heartily of the suggestion that a John B. Gough professorship be founded in the American University at the capital, and recommend the endowment of similar chairs in other institutions. They urge women to use every means practicable to insure equal governmental rights in the State and church; declare unalterable opposition to all political parties that in any way protect the liquor system; endorse that party which embodies in its platform the enfranchisement of women, prohibition of the liquor traffic, and preservation of the Sabbath; recommend carrying test liquor cases to the United States Supreme Court; condemn the action of the State Department in issuing a circular letter to consuls in South and Central America instructing them to gather all information possible regarding the beer trade in those countries with a view to extending this business; condemn the use of tobaccoists of advertisements in the shape of women's forms and faces, and the use of obscene cards in cigar boxes and cigarette packages; protest against immoral literature and medical advertisements; advocates dress reform; protest against legalizing the Louisiana lottery; protest against the publication by newspapers of the details of crimes and sensational stories.

Congress is memorialized to ratify the Brussels treaty relative to the liquor and slave trade in Africa; to pass a bill for commissions to investigate social vice and the alcoholic liquor traffic.

A number of addresses were made and the convention closed with a benediction.

More Dominion Scandal.

OTTAWA (Ont.), Nov. 18.—J. R. Arnold, formerly mechanical engineer of the Public Works Department, was arrested this afternoon, charged with conspiring to defraud the government. He was immediately bailed out.

—GIVEN TO—

DR. WOH,

The Eminent Chinese Physician.

No Opium or Poisonous Drugs are used in my Practice.

Dr. Woh's life work has been from early youth one of persistent and untiring observation, study and investigation, as fully as lay in his power to perfect himself in all branches of the art of healing human sickness and disease. Born in China, of influential parents, of a family whose ancestors have been for generations deservedly renowned as leading physicians, Dr. Woh naturally followed in the footsteps of his fathers. In China he has practiced his profession for several years, being at one time a physician in the Imperial Hospital, and in America for a long time. His great number of patients, his wonderful and many cures, and the great list of letters from grateful and thankful patrons now prove him to be a remarkable and successful healer of sickness and all diseases.

For a long time I have been suffering with bladder and kidney troubles. No doctoring or medicines seemed to do me good. I consulted the best physicians and surgeons in Los Angeles city. They gave me morphine and drugs, but no relief could I obtain. After suffering great pain and having my passage almost entirely clogged, Dr. Woh's medicine today I am perfectly well. I do consider Dr. Woh the most successful physician in Southern California. C. A. STEELE, 216 and 318 S. Main st., Los Angeles, Cal. October 12, 1891.

I have tried many doctors for heart disease but have derived no benefit until Dr. Woh, the Chinese physician, of Los Angeles City, prescribed for me. I began his treatment and can now certify that he has done me great good. I recommend Dr. Woh to my friends as an able doctor. F. E. KING, Justice of the Peace, Burbank, Cal. Oct. 30, 1891.

Dr. Woh was recommended to me by a friend. I had been troubled for years with indigestion, causing fearful headaches and vertigo, making my life one of misery. I tried and paid the best physicians without relief. Finally, to please my friend, I visited Dr. Woh at his office and he advised with me and gave me medicines. This was but six weeks ago. Today I can gladly and sincerely say that he has entirely cured me. CHARLES HEILMAN, 311 Court st., L. A. Cal.

In Cleveland, O., many months ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, terminating in asthma. The doctors said there was no hope of my recovery, but that a change to California might prolong my life. February last I came to San Bernardino and doctored with three physicians but obtained no relief, finally Dr. Woh was recommended to me by a friend. I took his medicine and followed his directions and today I am perfectly well. MISS GRACE M. FIELD, San Bernardino, Cal. Oct. 30, 1891.

Dr. Woh has hundreds of similar testimonials, but space alone prevents further publication of them here.

Dr. Woh is the oldest and best-known Chinese Physician in Southern California. His many cures have been remarkable, involving Female Troubles, Tumors and every form of disease.

All communications will be regarded as strictly confidential.

Free consultation to every one and all are cordially invited to call upon Dr. Woh at his office.

RAILROAD AFFAIRS.

A Matter of Rates to the World's Fair.

The Travel to California is Still Increasing.

Car Famine in Some Sections of the Country.

What Arizona Expects from the Railroads—The Traffic Association—General, Local and Personal Mention.

The fight that the general passenger agents will make on the scalpers looks like a war of extermination of redskins. The passenger men of all the roads leading to Chicago are a unit in asserting that the only way to insure low rates for the World's Fair is first to find a means of circumventing the ticket scalper. If the brokers can be knocked out so effectually that they cannot manipulate tickets and get revenue which otherwise would go to the railroads, then a really reasonable rate can be made for the public. The way they propose to do this was explained in this paper Monday. If the plan is carried out it will make a rate of about $40 from California points to Chicago, but tickets will sell cheaper than that in 1893.

SCRAP HEAP.

Supper is now served on the overland flyer which leaves San Francisco for Ogden and the East at 6 p.m.

A Judson excursion which arrived here yesterday from the East brought about seventy-five people to California.

The largest overland passenger train of the season came in on the Santa Fe yesterday, and it was only two hours late.

No manager has yet been chosen for the San Francisco Traffic Association, though Leeds seems to be the choice of the majority.

W. H. Snedaker, passenger agent for the Rio Grande Western, returned northward yesterday, after paying a visit to this section.

C. A. Warner, traveling passenger agent of the Santa Fe in California, is recovering from a severe attack of illness of six weeks' duration.

S. B. Hynes, general freight and passenger agent of the California Southern, went down to San Jacinto yesterday to look after business matters.

A. H. Prince, agent for the Southern California road at Casa Blanca, is at his home in this city, quite ill with typhoid fever. He has been laid up for twelve weeks but is getting better.

The Consolidated Electric Railway Company yesterday began tearing up Spring street at the intersection of Second to lay a cross track connecting the present electric line with the depot horse-car line, which is to be electrified.

Messrs. Dodge, Peabody and other officials of the Rio Grande Western have left Denver for a trip to this coast, and will stop off at Salt Lake City before proceeding to San Francisco. They are expected to take in Los Angeles this tour.

The subscription to membership in the San Francisco Traffic Association is progressing more rapidly than ever. The system of sending out small committees chosen from influential merchants has succeeded admirably. Monday most of the large wholesale dry goods houses came in, and there were no refusals.

The railroads of the great grain sections are suffering a car famine. In South Dakota 800 towns are suffering for want of cars to move grain to market. Telegrams and letters are pouring in to the Railroad Commissioners, demanding cars so that buyers can ship the grain they have purchased. The Railroad Commissioners will try to remedy matters.

A special telegram from St. Louis to the Examiner says that at a meeting of the Transcontinental Association there the $50 convention rate asked by the Southern Pacific was refused. Vice-President Stubbs had assured a San Francisco committee that he would guarantee the $50 rate, but now that he cannot fulfill his promise he will have to get out of the scrape as best he can.

The Transcontinental Association now has a permanent inspector at San José in the person of J. Shankland. His duties are to examine the contents of packages taking transcontinental rates to see if they are properly rated, and hereafter all questions between merchants and the railroad people as to improper rating by being wrongly described in billing will be settled by him.

NO BOOM

No Unusual Excitement!

But a steady, healthy growth from the start that cannot be repressed and has never been equalled in Southern California.

The Real Merit of our

Alessandro Lands

Is now widely and favorably known. The popular current is setting this way. It requires no argument or salesmanship to sell Alessandro land today. Anyone looking for a home among the orange groves of Southern California has but to see our beautiful valley of 21,000 acres, nearly 32 square miles of the finest orange and fruit land in the State. See what has been done there within the past twelve months; note the improvements that are constantly going on; see the handsome houses now under construction that would be a credit to either Redlands or Riverside; converse with as intelligent a class of people as can be found in the country, who are living there today, and your decision is made.

Nothing now can prevent a sale except the needful $300, which is amount of first payment required. 150 acres sold since last report; 100 acre sold during the past week. New homes going up in all directions, new families moving in every day; each mail brings us word that more are coming. 5000 acres will be planted the coming season.

Think a Moment! $120 per Acre!

Buy the best orange land in the world. What will it be worth five years from now, when those same acres will pay an income of 10 per cent on $5000 each. Send for map and full particulars. Respectfully,

THEODORE CLARK,

Manager Land Department.

THE COURTS.

The Asevedo Burglary Trial Still in Progress.

Some Strong Testimony Against the Defendant Yesterday.

Attorneys for the Heirs Admit That Cohn Paid Delphin's Bills—Judge Wade's Courtroom—General Court Notes—New Cases.

In Department One yesterday Judge Smith and a jury were occupied for the third successive day in the trial of the case against Albert Asevedo, one of the trio charged with the burglary of Ah Sic's drug store on the night of September 5 last.

The proceedings commenced with the cross-examination of Ah Ging, the little Mongolian who was upon the witness stand when court adjourned on Tuesday afternoon. He was followed by Solomon Benjamin, who proved to be an important witness for the prosecution. He testified to the effect that on the night of the burglary and about two hours after his commission he was accosted by the defendant in front of the Pico House. Asevedo offered to sell him an opium pipe, and after considerable dickering he purchased it for $3. The pipe, which was produced and identified by Ah Sic and his partner as the identical article stolen from the chest, which was carried off.

W. J. Hamilton, W. H. Auble, Peter Wolf, S. Bevan, M. Naud, W. A. Bosqui and Francisco Sepulveda were all examined by the prosecution, each one adding his quota of evidence against the defendant, and court then adjourned, the case being continued until this morning.

THE COHN CONTEST.
The taking of testimony in the trial of the contest over the estate of Bernard Cohn, deceased, was resumed before Judge Clark in Department Two yesterday, the cross-examination of the witness Antonio Orfila being continued. At its conclusion Mrs. Margarita C. de Reyes, the wife of Antonio Reyes, who was upon the stand on Tuesday, was called by the contestant and corroborated her husband's testimony, adding that while Cohn and Delphin were at the witness' restaurant Cohn was taken ill with one of his spells of heart disease and had to be assisted into the next room, where he lay on a bed for about ten minutes. Delphin introduced Cohn as her husband. Witness gave Cohn some "allantura," a Spanish herb recipe. She did not know what was the matter with him, but she thought that would fix him up and it did. He got up later and they went away.

Frederico Pereira, an aged Mexican, testified to the effect that he did some work upon Delphin's house on the plaza in 1884, for which he was paid by Cohn, who was then a member of the firm of Hellman, Haas & Co.

In 1888 he was engaged by Cohn to repair the roof of the house on Sansvein street, whether they had in the meantime moved. Cohn met him in front of the Pico House and told him to do the work. He said: "Frederico, go to my house on Sansvein street and tell my wife I sent you to fix the roof of the house." When the witness got there he saw Delphin, told her for what purpose he was sent, and she said: "Wait, and Benita will show you what to do." He waited, and the little boy took him up and showed him the roof which was to be repaired. The bill was subsequently paid by Cohn.

While Cohn and Delphin lived on Bellevue avenue, near Ord street, one day he was passing on the opposite side of the street, and saw Cohn sitting on the porch of the house in which they lived, with a child by his side.

S. M. White, Esq., at this juncture announced that in order to save time as much as possible, and to curtail the trial, the defense would admit that Cohn paid Delphin's bills, and with this point in their favor the contestant's counsel proceeded to call witnesses to prove the relationship which existed between the deceased and Delphin.

W. K. Kilgore, A. F. Abbott and Charles Stevens were examined on this point during the afternoon session, and court adjourned at 4:30 o'clock for the day. The case will be resumed again this morning.

JUDGE WADE'S COURTROOM.
Up to the present time the Board of Supervisors has not been officially notified of Judge Wade's action regarding the fitting up and furnishing of his new courtroom, and as a matter of consequence the members of that body refuse to discuss the question when approached on the subject.

Sheriff Gibson is also inclined to be reticent on the subject, but it is understood that plans for the new furniture are being prepared and will be submitted to Judge Wade for his consideration within a few days, and that the furniture will be made in this city.

That the Sheriff is inclined to proceed to carry out the Court's instructions over the heads of the Board of Supervisors will readily be seen by the following:

Judge Wade's order of Monday last was drawn under section 144 of the Civil Code, which provides that when the judge of any court has not a suitable or commodious room for conducting the business of the court the judge may direct the sheriff to provide him with one, and that the judge's certificate of such having been furnished constitutes a legal liability upon the county and a demand upon the treasury which the treasurer is bound to pay.

A decision which is recently rendered upon this law in the case of ex-parte Widbee, and which was published in the 8th California Reports, has a direct bearing on this case. There the Hon. James T. Ross, of San Francisco made an order directing the sheriff to provide him with a better courtroom than he had. The room he had, it is stated, was much better than that of Judge Wade at present, but was so inconveniently located that it was accessible with difficulty to the business public.

The sheriff provided the furniture and the bill was certified to and an order made by the judge upon the county treasurer to pay it. This the treasurer refused to do, whereupon he was promptly arrested for contempt. He brought a writ of habeas corpus, and the Supreme Court in passing upon the matter said that the order of the court was surplage, and since the treasurer was imprisoned for contempt of that order he must be released. The opinion stated, however, that the certificate to the bill by the judge made a demand of it upon the treasurer and that if the treasurer did not pay it recourse should be had by mandamus, which if not obeyed he would then, of course, be in contempt.

Court Notes.
In Department One yesterday morning Thomas Kelley appeared before Judge Smith for arraignment upon the charge of having assaulted J. G. Green with intent to murder, at Acton on September 15 last, and was allowed until Saturday next in which to plead thereto.

In Department Three yesterday Judge Wade heard and ordered judgment for the plaintiff in each of the following forcible detainer cases: Christian Holler vs. J. W. C. Miller et al., $3000; Mrs. E. A. Mackie vs. L. Byrnes, $1100; and A. Krug vs. J. W. C. Miller, $1000.

In Department Four yesterday the trial of the Southern California National Bank against Quong Wa Lung and Co., an attachment suit on a $800 promissory note, was resumed before Judge Van Dyke, who finally ordered judgment for plaintiff.

The case of M. C. Marsh against E. F. Brickett et al., an action on a street assessment, came up for hearing before Judge Van Dyke in Department Four yesterday, and resulted in judgment for the defendant.

In Department Five yesterday the case of D. C. Lamb vs. James Hannah et al., a suit to foreclose a mortgage, came up for hearing before Judge Shaw, and the defendants having allowed the matter to go by default, judgment was ordered for plaintiff as prayed for.

Judge Shaw yesterday heard the case of O. A. Vickery against Mrs. Sarah C. Rounds, a suit to recover the sum of $137.50, alleged to be due as commission for services rendered by G. A. Chapel and Co., real-estate agents, by whom it was assigned to plaintiff, which came up on an appeal from the City Justice's Court, and rendered judgment for plaintiff.

The case of the San Gabriel Valley Rapid Transit Railway Company against Mrs. A. E. Behlow et al., a condemnation suit, the special issues in which were recently submitted to a jury, was dismissed by Judge McKinley yesterday upon motion of the plaintiff, the damages awarded by the jury being too high in the company's opinion.

United States Commissioner Van Dyke held a preliminary examination yesterday into the two cases against T. W. Knox, the Santa Barbara Press agent, charged with having sent copies of the San Francisco Examiner and Chronicle which contained lottery lists, and were therefore non-mailable matter, through the mails on October 13 last. The defendant was discharged in the Examiner case, but held to answer to the other charge.

United States District Attorney Cole is in San Diego engaged in the prosecution of two men who are before the United States Commissioner there charged with smuggling horses across the Mexican border.

The grand jury, which has been in session for the past two months, more or less, adjourned yesterday for a week, but will pay its official visits to the county farm and other institutions before reconvening on Tuesday next. District Attorney McLaughlin will take advantage of the temporary cessation of that body's investigations to visit Lancaster and personally look into the Morris-Crane shooting affair.

New Suits.
Among the documents filed with the County Clerk yesterday were the preliminary papers in the following new cases:

S. F. Boyd vs. A. T. Patton, administrator's suit to annul a sheriff's sale of plaintiff's homestead.

J. R. Elliott vs. H. H. Boyce et al.; suit to recover from each of the defendants the sum of $1454.45 alleged to be due on a deficiency judgment against the Gladstone Improvement Company.

W. F. Storey filed a petition for the admission to probate of the will of James B. Pratt, deceased, who died in October last, leaving real property valued at $1000.

Isaac M. Case filed a petition for the admission to probate of the will of Mrs. Lizzie M. Case, deceased, who died on November 4, leaving real property valued at $500.

S. B. Cobb vs. Pacific Railway Company et al.; suit to foreclose a mortgage for $25,000.

Miss Fannie Wilcox vs. James P. Bower et al.; suit to foreclose a mortgage for $1200.

EARLY MORNING FIRE.

A Small but Expensive Blaze on the East Side.

A small but quite expensive fire occurred at 3:40 a. m. yesterday in East Los Angeles. At that hour a stable on the premises at No. 1113 Downey avenue, owned by Hancock Johnson and occupied by Rev. Dr. Breese, burned with its contents, consisting of a fine carriage horse valued at $250, a new $150 carriage, harness, hay, tools, etc. A cow was also kept in the building, but her halter burned away and she made her escape. The origin of the blaze is a complete mystery. The fire appearing to break out at both ends of the shed at once. This is the third fire on the premises within a space of four years, two unsuccessful attempts at burning the house having been made some time ago.

Dr. Breese has no insurance on his carriage and other property, but the building was covered by a slight insurance. The total loss is estimated at $450 or $500.

ANOTHER FIRE.

Another fire occurred at 6:30, when the department was called out to attend to a small blaze in the kitchen of Mrs. Underwood's residence, on Ann street. The fire caught in the roof and was probably caused by a defective flue. It was extinguished before it got under good headway. The damage will not exceed $50.

OLD SPANISH ARCHIVES.

They Are Wanted by the Surveyor-General.

An Agent in the City to Take Possession of Them.

An Exciting Scene in the Office of the City Clerk.

Mr. Teed Declines to Give Up the Documents Without an Order from the Council—History of the Case.

The monotonous routine of the City Clerk's office was broken yesterday by a decidedly sensational incident, which might have resulted seriously had Mr. Teed been in his usual health, and not enfeebled from the effects of a three weeks' tussle with incipient typhoid fever.

On Saturday last a middle-aged man walked into the City Clerk's office and introduced himself as J. Alexander Forbes. He stated that he was the keeper of the Spanish and Mexican archives in the office of the Surveyor-General at San Francisco, and said that he had been instructed to visit Los Angeles and San Diego, go through the archives and take possession of such of the papers as in his judgment belonged to the United States, for the use of the Surveyor-General's office. Mr. Forbes exhibited an order from the Surveyor-General to this effect, and also a copy of the laws under which he was acting. Deputy Luckenbach told Mr. Forbes that, while everything was apparently regular on the face of the documents, he could not allow any papers to be taken from the office without Mr. Teed's orders, and as that gentleman was at home sick he would have to wait till he came down town, which would probably be Monday or Tuesday. Mr. Forbes then asked to examine the records, which was allowed, after which he left the office, saying he would call again on Mr. Teed's return.

Nothing more was seen of Mr. Forbes until yesterday, when he again called at the office. Mr. Teed was in at the time and the gentleman at once made known his business, and showed his credentials. Mr. Teed stated that he had no doubt but what it was all right, but he could not allow any of the archives of the city to leave the office without an order of the Council, or some process of court by which he would be protected. Mr. Forbes could not see the matter in this light. He wanted the documents, and if they were not given up he would call in the assistance of the United States Marshal and take them any way, especially as he had the promise of Mr. Teed's predecessor that he should have the documents when they were wanted. Mr. Teed asked who had made any such promise, but Mr. Forbes could not remember the name. Mr. Robinson, the Mayor's clerk, happened in the office about this time, and he was called on by Mr. Teed to explain matters, he having been City Clerk for a number of years before he (Teed) went into office. Mr. Robinson could not recall any such promise, and said so. In the meantime, the conversation proceeded, and Mr. Teed, not liking Mr. Forbes' manner, finally told him plainly that his conduct was very offensive to him, that he could not have the documents until he could produce some order of court for them, and hinted that his visitor's absence was preferable to his society. Mr. Forbes was reluctant about going, when Mr. Teed intimated very forcibly that he had better leave, which he finally did, and no trouble ensued.

When they were called on the United States Marshal, but as District Attorney Cole was out of the city, no action was taken in the matter last evening. Mr. Cole was looked for from San Diego last evening, and it is probable that some steps will be taken today to arrange the business.

WILL PROBABLY MAKE A FIGHT.
It was stated last evening that there would probably be a contest over the matter, and that the papers would not be given up without a struggle. It appears that some years ago an agent of the United States Surveyor-General was sent out to gather up all the old Spanish and Mexican archives for the use of that office. It was agreed that, after going through the papers, all those belonging to the city and county should be returned to the Surveyor-General to retain those belonging to the Government. This was done, and five volumes were returned to the county and three to the city. The three city volumes are the proceedings of the old council, and relate particularly to the land titles given by the old pueblo, and which cover all of the most valuable real estate in the city. Several years ago an agent of the Surveyor-General came to Los Angeles and got the county archives, which were carried to the Surveyor's office in San Francisco. It is stated that the then city attorney gave an opinion that the city archives would be returned to the city, but for some reason they were not taken, and they have ever since been in the custody of the City Clerk, nothing more having been heard of the matter until Mr. Forbes' recent visit.

It is further claimed that these archives should not be allowed to leave the city, for the reason that they are constantly in use, and it would be an outrage to compel citizens to go to San Francisco whenever they are to be consulted, or to pay a fee for having the work done, and as an example of the expense entailed it is stated that in looking up the water titles some years ago the city was compelled to pay Juan Toro $2000 to go to San Francisco and look up certain of the old documents that had been misplaced in the Surveyor's office.

Mr. Forbes will probably have a consultation with District Attorney Cole this morning, when some plan of action will be agreed upon. In the meantime the archives are locked up in the City Clerk's vault, where they will remain until the matter of ownership is settled beyond question.

Licensed to Wed.
Marriage licenses were issued at the County Clerk's office, yesterday, to the following persons:

George A. Simpson, a native of Massachusetts, 29 years of age, to Grace A. Lloyd, also a native of Massachusetts, 23 years of age, both residents of this city.

Clint W. Lee, a native of Ohio, 28 years of age, to Lizzie M. Knighton, a native of California, 20 years of age, both residents of this city.

Robert M. Spencer, a native of Texas, 28 years of age, to Julia A. Haigh, a native of California, 26 years of age, both residents of Tehachapi.

J. B. Pendleton, a native of Kentucky, 57 years of age, to Sarah J. Curtis, a native of Illinois, 28 years of age, both residents of Pasadena.
Eusebius Pollard, a native of California, 22 years of age, to Isabel Irving, a native of Scotland, 23 years of age, both residents of Alhambra.

THE EAST SIDE.

First Performance of the "Land of Pie"—News Notes and Personal.

On Tuesday evening Campbell's Hall was more than filled on the occasion of the second entertainment given by the Qui Vive Dramatic Club. The presentation was that of an operetta or cantata, partly original, partly adapted from an old nursery tale. The cast was well chosen and the affair was a success from the start. Among those to distinguish themselves, the most prominent were: D. Burke as "King of the Land of Pie," Miss N. Kennedy as "Princess Kitty," and Frank Strahora as "Prince Tortoise-shell," her suitor. Charles Clark as lord chamberlain and Ernest Chapman as the court jester also sustained their parts admirably.

The music was furnished by the Harmony orchestra, assisted by other local musicians and led by H. G. Ayresworth. The last named gentleman was the composer of a greater portion of the score, which was arranged for orchestral interpretation by Clarence Stevens of the Harmony. At the close of the performance coffee and pie was announced, and after all present had partaken the floor was cleared for dancing, which continued until near midnight. There were numbers of persons unable to secure seats during the first part of the evening, and there are many who hope that the performance will be repeated, either in a larger hall on the East Side or over in the city.

NOTES.

Mrs. F. A. Civille last evening entertained her class of girls from the Congregational Sunday-school at her home, corner of Griffin avenue and Patrick streets. Games, refreshments and lots of fun comprised the programme, and the young misses declared the party a charming success.

The Tennis Club met for its regular monthly business meeting last night at Miss Earl's, on Downey avenue. Work has been begun on the new court, opposite the Presbyterian Church, but for some reason does not progress very rapidly. It is hoped, however, that before long the club will be at work again and then some match games may be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Van Horne celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their marriage on Monday evening. Their pleasant home at No. 213 North Workman street was filled with friends and neighbors who were most hospitably entertained with music, recitations, games and refreshments until a late hour.

Miss Cora Knight, niece of Dr. and Mrs. Knight of South Johnson street was married yesterday morning at Santa Monica to Mr. W. D. McGee, of San Bernardino. The happy couple came at once to this city, partook of a wedding lunch with their relatives here, and then left on the afternoon train for San Diego, where they will spend their honeymoon.

IS IT McLAUGHLIN?

The Identity of the Drowned Man Not Fully Established.

Coroner Weldon returned from Santa Monica yesterday forenoon, bringing with him the body of the man found drowned in the surf Tuesday afternoon, and supposed to be Ed McLaughlin, a waiter who formerly worked in this city at various places and also at Santa Monica.

A post mortem and inquest was held at Santa Monica, and the jury returned a verdict of death from drowning, but whether by accident or with suicidal intent they were unable to say.

The post mortem showed that death had resulted from drowning, and it is supposed that his neck was either dislocated in falling into shallow water on his head, or else by the action of the waves in rolling the body around.

The body was viewed at the morgue yesterday by several hundred people, most of whom had known McLaughlin during his lifetime. Opinion was divided as to the identity of the dead man, some being positive that he was McLaughlin, while others were equally positive that while there was a very strong resemblance the man was not the waiter.

It was learned yesterday that McLaughlin has a wife living near Madera, and she was telegraphed, asking for any information she could give about her husband.

Boyle Heights Notes.

The ladies of Ascension Guild gave another of their enjoyable socials and parlor entertainments last evening at the home of Mr. Nicholl on Cornwall avenue. There was a good attendance and the affair was pronounced most successful.

C. Shanks and Mr. Mansfield, both of Chicago, are among the last to register at the Cummings Hotel.

E. E. Powers, the attorney, moved into his elegant new residence, corner of Penn avenue and Fickett street, on Tuesday.

The ladies of the Library Association have begun to plan for a dramatic entertainment to be given the second week of January next. It is to be at the new Korbel Hall and the ladies are to be believed in their enthusiasm it will be the event of the season. Dickens' David Copperfield is the work selected to be worked over and put upon the boards in a manner to be, as the ladies promise, newly appreciated.

Miss Howison on Robert Burns.

Graceful figure, well-poised head, pleasing manners and distinct utterance include the chief attractions of Miss Howison of Cincinnati, who spoke last evening in the Y.M.C.A. auditorium to an audience which was not as large as the merits of the occasion demanded. Her theme was that of the Scottish peasant poet whose brilliant career was cut short before he was 38 years of age—Robert Burns—the greatest bard Scotland has ever produced. Into her lecture were woven many of his choicest poems, which she delivered with such telling effect, as to elicit pleased applause from her audience, which numbered some of the best literary critics of the city. Her hearty and sympathetic accord with the sentiment expressed by the poet gave great effectiveness to her interpretations of his lines.

BUSINESS.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES,
LOS ANGELES, NOV. 18, 1891.

The poultry market is well supplied, as has been the case for some time past, and prices show few fluctuations. Dealers say that somewhat higher figures may be expected next week than have prevailed of late, but they do not look for the extremely high prices that used to be obtained in Thanksgiving week in former years. They say that the supplies coming in from this section will be ample for the local demand, and they do not think there will be any eastern poultry in this market at present. It is all this winter. This state of affairs is in sharp contrast with that of a few years ago, when carloads of eastern fowls were shipped to this city during the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons.

In Chicago yesterday the Earl Fruit Company sold California fruit at auction as follows: Full crates Emperor grapes, $2.05 @ 2.25; Cornish, $1.20 @ 1.25; Winter Nellis pears, $1.75 @ 2.10; Eastern Beurre, $1.25 @ 1.55; Vicar, $1.75. Two carloads were sold.

Potatoes continue plentiful and are well at a wide range of prices. Oregon and Ventura Burbanks commanding as high as $1.25 per cental, while the better varieties of local growth run considerably under that figure.

There is no change in mill-stuffs. Northern flour continues at the $6 notch to which it was placed some days ago, and the local mills are still selling 90 cents lower per barrel.

Eggs were rather more quiet today, but fresh ranch continue scarce and the tendency continues upward.

Money, Stocks and Bonds.
NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Money—On call, easy; clearing offered at 3 per cent.

PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—50-day bills, 4.50; demand, 4.84.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The stock market opened active with no special features. There was a slight advance in most stocks, continuing until the last hour, when a sharp decline brought prices down to nearly the opening figures. The close was quiet and firm at small fractional advances over the opening in all stocks except Sugar, which made a gain of 1 1/2 per cent.

Government bonds steady.

and firm. Barley was steady with fair demand. Oats were dull. Corn was strong and quotations higher. Beans were stronger, owing to better demand.

The vegetable market is getting pretty well thinned out of summer varieties. The general run of tomatoes is very poor. Summer squash is getting scarce.

The market for dairy produce shows no change. Butter is dull with the exception of fancy grades. Choice ranch eggs are still firm.
